PROPOSITION No. 1 WINS CIVIC GROUP SUPPORT

The Public Community Center Committee met in the City Council Chambers, Wednesday Evening March 20, to hear from members of the civic and fraternal organizations endorsing Proposition No. 1. Chairman Donahue read a letter from George W. Braden, Field Representative of the National Recreation Association, commending the citizens and the various organizations of Albany in having the foresight to construct recreational facilities that aid so materially in the prevention of juvenile delinquency.

Sam Hayes, NBC radio commentator and Regional Adviser of the American Commission for living war memorials, in his letter of March 12, addressed to the Public Community Center Committee, stated that he was very interested in hearing about the Public Community Center Building. As a Living War Memorial Plan for the City of Albany at a cost of approximately $200,000. He further stated that it is a very worthwhile project. Donahue told the group present that it was gratifying to receive so many calls from local citizens commending the Public Community Center Committee on their work in supporting Proposition No. 1.

Albany Parent Teachers' Associations, at their respective meetings, voted to join with the Albany Lions Club, American Legion, Albany Fraternal Order of Eagles, Albany Exchange Club, Albany Pre School Mothers' Club, Public Community Center Committee, Post War Planning Committee and the Park and Recreation Commission, in securing favorable approval of Proposition No. 1.

Mrs. Roland Grisham, President of Cornell P. T. A., appealed to the citizens of Albany to support Proposition No. 1 which provides an opportunity for wholesome, constructive, leisure time activity and will aid materially in building good character in the younger generation. President Mrs. E. A. Schorsch of the Marin P. T. A. urged that the citizens of Albany be aware of the inadequacy of our present in-door recreational facilities and warned that unless the citizens of Albany vote favorably on Proposition No. 1, the leisure time opportunities for our children and youth will be in jeopardy.

Albany High School P. T. A. President Mrs. A. L. Magazin stated that Proposition No. 1 would be of great benefit to the teen-agers of Albany and that favorable approval on this measure would provide adequate leisure time opportunities for high school boys and girls.

Albany Fraternal Order of Eagles, Bayview Aerie No. 2323, went on record as publicly endorsing Proposition No. 1 according to Bill Donahue, Chairman of the Public Community Center Committee. The communication from Herbert F. Townsend, Secretary, stated that "At our regular meeting held March 11, the officers and members of Bayview Aerie No. 2323, Fraternal Order of Eagles, voted unanimously to endorse Proposition No. 1 on the ballot at the Albany City Election, Monday, April 8, 1946."

Donahue pointed out that an endorsement from the Pre-school Mothers' Club having recommended that the citizens of Albany vote favorably on Proposition No. 1 was received on March 13.

Jack Hamilton in a letter dated March 13, 1946, stated that the Al-

EL CERRITO ROW OVER TAX LOTS

El Cerrito's Good Government League is up in arms over an agreement made by El Cerrito City Council, over the objections of Councilman Donald S. Moore, to give "an unknown corporation an option to purchase any and all tax delinquent lots in the city for a period of two years, at a price of $15 for a 25-foot lot."

The option was the subject of spirited discussion at this week's El Cerrito Council meeting when G. A. Vaughan, 7416 Fairmont Ave., asked if it was too late for veterans or other home-seekers to bid on the lots, now declared tax delinquent.

Mayor Louis Davis informed Vaughan that while no actual purchase had been consummated, the option was granted to the United Building Construction Co. for the purchase of all tax delinquent property, subject to final approval of the State Control Board.

Following the council meeting representatives of the Veterans of Foreign Wars stated they intended bringing the tax delinquent property case before their groups with the hope of delaying action until a ruling on the legality of the procedure can be obtained.

Under the agreement, the city would receive $7.50 per lot, and the state would receive a like sum. E. C. Wiegmann, president of the Good Government League, and other members claimed a public sale would bring many times this amount into the city treasury.

BUNDLE UP PAPER FOR BIG DRIVE

By WALTER HOLLAND

The Albany Salvage committee has been requested to make another drive to pick up waste paper in the community and Fred Pimental, fire chief, in charge of the salvage drives, reports he has had many requests from citizens to pick up an accumulation of waste paper.

In order to comply with the wishes and requests the fire chief has asked Albany Post of the Legion to come to his aid and clean up all the waste paper in the city of Albany. Albany Post has set Sunday April 7th as the day, and members of the Post will turn out and pick up the accumulated paper.

James A. Sartain will be the Post's general chairman for this drive to get the paper and all the rules and regulations as to the preparation of the waste paper for pick up Sunday, April 7th will be the same as in all previous waste paper pick ups Albany Post conducted during the days of the war.

Says Pimental, "there is still a vital need for paper due to the fact that all the paper sent overseas during the war will never return and there is still a shortage in wood pulp because of short importations, the back log to catch up with civilian needs because of the war, the shortage of labor in the mills and forests. Another feature of a general clean-up of the waste paper in the city will be the reduction of a fire hazard in the homes and business establishments in Albany. The Albany Post has done an excellent job on every salvage drive it has been asked to assist in or sponsor and I know the Legion can do a good piece of work in the coming drive. The Albany Salvage Committee is well satisfied that the proceeds from the sale of the paper will be used for the veteran's welfare and community betterment programs of Albany Post No. 292."

The preliminary request of James Sartain is "Bundle all paper now on hand, newspapers, and magazines bundled separately and tied securely, save all paper until April 6th, have the bundles on the curb Sunday Morning April 7th."

New Men's and Boys' Shop to Open Tomorrow

Wade's Men's and Boy's Shop will open on March 23rd at 9:45 a.m. The Shop will be located in Hartley's Department store at 1423 So-lano Avenue. Samuel O. Wade is the proprietor.

Jackets, slacks, shirts, shorts, overalls, work pants, hats, ties and sweaters are among the articles featured. Then there is an assortment of men's jewelry and wallets, belts, garters, suspenders, robes and socks. Cigarette lighters, too, provide excellent gifts or for the buyer's own use.

Mr. Wade states that he has made every effort to offer a complete line even in this day of shortages and invites Albany to come and see.

The letter came from Poland and it tells its own story.

I Would Like

CITY

KATHE S. ZAHN

(LAST NAME on the Ballot Under "Council")

My desire has been to save the taxpayers money, and I shall maintain that desire fervently. During the short time I have been a candidate for the city council, I have already discovered one definite way that can be done.

This concerns Proposition No. 4 on the April 8 ballot, which is for street improvements. This proposition requests $176,000. There is no question but that the improvements called for in this proposition are necessary, BUT...

IS THIS ENTIRE AMOUNT NECESSARY, AND HOW IS IT TO BE SPENT?

Upon inquiry on March 16, 1946 from Mr. Grey, Albany City Engineer, as to how this amount was to be spent, he informed me that the sum of $176,000 was "incorrect", and that the correct figure should have been $152,500. He was unable to account for the difference of $23,500.

Upon taking this matter to the city council last Monday, March 18, Mr. Hays, Street Commissioner, and a candidate for office as city councilman, refused to make any explanation as to this difference. I do not wish to imply that a logical explanation for the apparent discrepancy does not exist, but I do feel strongly that such matters should be open to public consideration.

If elected to represent you on the CITY COUNCIL I shall continue to fight for

- * Open discussion on all such questions;
- * For careful analysis of proposals for expenditures;
- * FOR SAVING OF THE TAXPAYERS' MONEY.

Big expansion program under way to speed your calls

This year alone, as part of a $400,000,000 five-year expansion program, more than 200,000 miles of new toll and long distance circuits are planned for the Pacific Coast.

For we're on our way to providing a broader and faster long distance service than you have ever had before.

Everything possible is being done to expand long distance facilities now and to prepare the way for many new improvements to come. We handled more than 346 million toll and long distance calls in 1945—nearly a million a day—and we're gearing up to handle an ever-increasing volume as the West continues to grow through the years to come.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH

By R. S. WHITTAKER, M.D.

Three times in as many weeks I have treated people who have hurt themselves right in their homes. One was a child who got hold of a bottle of poison and drank it. Another was a man who fell and broke his leg and the third was a woman who burned herself.

These three accidents got me to thinking about how much useless suffering, pain and expense are caused by carelessness.

Take the case of Jimmy. He is a cunning little fellow four years old.

One day while his mother was making beds he wandered into the kitchen. A cup on the table attracted his attention. By standing on tiptoe he found that he could just reach it. Once the cup was in his grasp, he naturally put it to his lips. Of course he did not know the cup contained kerosene — and his mother did not know he would find it.

Jimmy's loud cries after he had taken a big swallow brought his mother running to the kitchen. When she saw what had happened, she became so excited she did not know what to do. Fortunately, her sister dropped in and had the presence of mind to call me. I told her I would come right over, but meanwhile to force Jimmy to drink warm water with salt, baking soda or soap — whatever was at hand — to bring on vomiting.

When I arrived Jimmy was screaming and screaming in his mother's arms, strenuously objecting to swallowing a glass of soapy water. We managed to quiet him. I washed out his stomach thoroughly, then told his mother to put him to bed, warmly covered. His experience had been a shock, so he needed to be kept quiet and warm. Because his stomach had been irritated, I prescribed a special diet for the time being.

Within a few days Jimmy was fully recovered and running around as usual. He had had a close call, but since we were able to get the poison out of his stomach before it got through his system his life was saved. Of course, there would have been no danger of the boy's poisoning himself if the kerosene had not been left carelessly on the kitchen table.

Several days later I was called to another house in the neighborhood. A young man had slipped on a towel left on a stairway, fallen down half a flight of steps and broken his leg. The patient was also badly bruised. His leg is now in a cast. It will be many weeks before he can return to work.

Falls in the home are by no means uncommon, but they could be avoided with a little care. Often they are more serious than they seem at first. There is always the danger, from a hard fall, of internal injury, a severe sprain or a broken bone. When there is any doubt at all about the extent of injury, play safe, consult a doctor. A broken bone must be set correctly if it is to heal properly. A sprain must also be bandaged properly.

If pain persists after a fall and there is no apparent reason for it, there may be a hidden injury which can be detected only by a physician, perhaps with the aid of an X-ray picture. If there is such an injury, it should be treated immediately.

The third "home accident" case I had recently was a woman whose arm had been burned by steam when she lifted the lid from a roasting pan. Although the burn was painful she thought it would heal quickly and did nothing about it. A few days later instead of being better, the burn was worse and she came to see me.

The burn had become infected and was an ugly wound. Before the infection was cleared up and the burn healed, my patient suffered a great deal of pain and inconvenience. This could have been avoided if her arm had been cared for immediately after it was burned.

There is always danger of infection from a burn. Even a slight one should not be neglected. Another danger from a burn is shock. This is particularly apt to result if the burn covers a large area of the skin.

Accidents in the home, which seem trifling at the time, should not be dismissed lightly. Often they are slight and may not need more than first aid treatment at home. But in case of doubt, by all means consult your doctor. One consultation with him at the time of the accident may prevent the development of a serious trouble.

Conversation at the breakfast table either upsets you, or sets you up for the day.

COMMUNICATED

Editor Albany Times:

I would like to add my endorsement to that of others in favor of the four bond issues to be voted on by the voters in the coming election.

In our enthusiasm for issues one, two and three we must not forget number four. Without funds the present condition of the streets will deteriorate even more rapidly and reach the state where an aroused public would demand another bond issue — this time without matching State funds and with greatly increased cost because of neglect.

In the matter of the parks and the community center building it is also a matter of saving ourselves money by putting through the bond issues now when funds from the ninety million dollar surplus are available. Soon vacant lots in Albany will be gone and the children will have nothing but streets and sidewalks on which to play — unless the people of Albany plan now for the future.

Let us pass all four bond issues with a resounding majority.

Mrs. Catherine J. Webb

can tell you a lot about your Water Heater

How does your water heater "size up" on wash-day? If family use of hot water in bathrooms or kitchen drains down your water heater so you must wait or do your laundry with luke-warm water, your water heater is too small. Modern homes need a water heater with at least 30 gallons water storage capacity. • When you build a new or remodel your present home be sure to have your plumber "size up" your hot water needs according to the chart below.

How to "Size up" Hot Water Requirements
 Minimum Recommendations for Normal, Average Hot Water Service.

Number Bathrooms	Number Bedrooms	Storage Capacity Gallons
1	1 or 2	30
1	3 or 4	40
2	2 or 3	40
2	4 or 5	50
3	3	50
3 or 4	4 or 5	75

Remember, too, a large size water heater costs very little more to operate. It more than pays for itself in worry-free hot water service for the whole family.

VOTE NO!
ON
NUMBER 6

We, the people who oppose the passage of the above proposition No. 6 (the rezoning of San Pablo Avenue from Portland Avenue to the County Line to a Wholesale District) hereby answer the arguments which have been offered to us in favor of the measure. They are as follows:

1. Such business is needed to provide the city with additional revenue.
2. The property to be rezoned has been idle for a considerable length of time and will not develop as a retail zone.
3. That a wholesale district would offer increased employment opportunities.
4. There are businesses of this type in the district already.

We believe that if there is a need and a demand for such business it will develop in one of the existing wholesale districts in the Bay Region, and that the employment opportunities will be the same as if built in Albany. People in a metropolitan area do not expect to live very near their work. If they work in a wholesale district they do not want to live next door to it.

This is true and it is the reason why we have no confidence that adequate control of the type of business permitted would be exercised. We, the people, protested the SPOT-ZONING of these lots but the City Council ignored our protests. We feared that the SPOT-ZONING of these lots to heavy industry would serve as an opening for undesirable business to enter. The above Proposition No. 6 proves that our fears were well-founded.

CHURCH OF NAZARENE

The Albany Church of the Nazarene has started this first unit of the buildings to be erected on their property at Solano and Talbot Avenues. This temporary chapel will face Talbot, and will provide an auditorium with a seating capacity of one hundred and fifty persons, also an office and two class rooms. Later this chapel will be converted into a seven-room parsonage.

Plans are being made for a boys and girls club building to be erected back of the chapel, leaving the front portion of the building site with one hundred feet frontage on Solano for the main auditorium and the teaching unit.

The Nazarenes organized a Sunday School two years ago in Albany in the house that stood on their present building site. This house was later moved to the lot on Talbot Avenue bordering their property on the north. Here services were held until last Sept. when the house was sold. Since no building in Albany was available to rent, Mr. and Mrs. Davis of 509 Kains Ave., kindly offered the use of their home where the Sunday School is now being carried on. This chapel should be completed by June, Mrs. Sarah Esmond is pastor.
